

We need regulatory guidelines in place that serve public, rather than private, corporate interests. I oppose taking a vote that leads to further media consolidation and thus on June 2nd, I strongly urge you to retain the current media ownership rules.